

TIP TOP-ICS

LITTLE LORD FAUNTLEROY
AND MARK OF ZORRO
CHANGE PLACES

"Little Lord Fauntleroy," will be shown at the Tip Top Friday and Saturday instead of "Mark of Zorro," as advertised last week.

"Mark of Zorro" will be shown January 12 and 13.

GLORIA SWANSON IS

TIP TOP PICTURE STAR

Gloria Swanson has an irresistible appeal in "Her Gilded Cage," which the Tip Top will show tomorrow (Wednesday) night.

A little French girl in poor circumstances—

A danseuse in a Paris cafe—

A model for an artist—

A famous singer in American theaters—

These form the composite role which Miss Swanson plays in this production, directed by George Fitzmaurice, and which Famous Players-Lasky corporation has given an unusually sumptuous dress.

There is nothing depressing about "Her Gilded Cage," yet it has its high dramatic situations.

MARY PICKFORD IN

DUAL ROLE IN "LITTLE LORD FAUNTLEROY"

The thing that probably will interest the public most about Mary Pickford's "Little Lord Fauntleroy" which will be shown at the Tip Top theater next Friday and Saturday, is not so much the fact that she plays a dual role in this picture as that she takes the part of a boy.

This feature which will be shown matinee and night thru Saturday is being played at the Hawaii under the auspices of the Dramatic and Story-telling League, which will use the funds thus raised to stimulate interest of children in literature and dramatics.

Little Mary has played a dual role before—in "Stella Maris," but this will be the first time she has ever appeared as a boy throughout an entire photoplay. While it is true that she has worn masculine garb in some of her previous productions she did so as a girl masquerading as a boy for the moment only. But in her film version of Frances Hodgson Burnett's great story, Miss Pickford is constantly on the screen as Little Lord Fauntleroy or as his mother; in fact, much of the time she is there both as the mother and the little lord, all by the aid of cleverly ydevised double exposure work.

There are many features that indicate this not only is Mary Pickford's greatest photoplay but one of the most remarkable film plays ever shown. Without a doubt it is the most appealing story ever screened. It is rich in color and human interest.

Some of the best character actors in the cinema world will be seen in this picture among them Claud Gillingwater, James A. Marcus, Kate Price, Fred Malatesia and others. Special music was written for the production by Louis Gottschalk.

A tenderfoot actor, plunged suddenly into the grim reality of a series of hair raising, uncomfortable and highly amusing adventures in Montana is the theme of "A Broadway Cowboy," starring William Desmond, which will be the feature attraction at the Tip Top Sunday night.

JACKIE COOGAN SHOWS

'EM HOW IN "TROUBLE"

When "Trouble" is shown at the Tip Top theater Wednesday, December 27, the children hereabouts—boys especially—will receive a lesson in courage and manliness from Jackie Coogan.

The little seven year old artist plays the role of an orphan who is adopted by the wife of a brutal plumber. The man only will not work but he beats his beautiful young wife and the little waif who has come into his home. When Jackie sees his foster mother in tears and realizes there is no food in the house, he undertakes, with dissimilar results, to substitute on a plumbing job for the good-for-nothing husband. Though he is a miserable failure as a plumber, the tiny artisan is given five dollars for trying. And when the ruffian tries to take it away from the frail mother Jackie starts a battle that winds up with the brute going to jail for a year.

HOLIDAY HIKE SCHEDULED

Members of Y clubs throughout the county who are not working, will participate in a series of hikes and overnight camps which have been arranged by the county secretaries. The Pioneer Club of Puhi will hike to the Lihue power plant and stay over night there, December 18. The boys of Waimea, Kekaha and Mana join forces and invade the silent stretches of Barking Sands, on the 20th and 22nd. Koloa, Kukulu and Lawai stable aggregations depart for points unknown on the 27th and 28th. Members of the various clubs in Lihue have chosen the 27th and 28th for their pilgrimage. Pakala, Makawell and Hanapepe contingents report "one continuous circle of enjoyment" during last Friday night on the beach near Pakala. Huskies from Anahola and Hanalei are planning a joint invasion of the heights back of Kilauea.

WAIMEA HI Y SEXTET SINGS

Six members of the Waimea Hi Y Club rendered selections at the Sunday evening young people's meeting in the Hawaiian church. Visiting speakers were Messrs. Vance and Jackson of the Kauai high school.

GLORIA SWANSON

in a Sam Wood production

"HER GILDED CAGE"

By Elmer Harris. Based on the play by Anne Nichols. Scenario by Percy Heath

A play of lavish splendor and deep heart interest. With Gloria Swanson in the most fascinating role of her career. The star appears as a famous dancer—in public, a frivolous butterfly; in private, a woman. Gowns and sets that bewilder with their beauty and a revelation of the human soul that will go straight to your heart. The most gorgeous, resplendent picture the star has ever appeared in.

Three-Passenger Sport
Roadster

Buick Model 23 - Six - 54

Not in all of Buicks twenty years has there been a Buick Roadster so strikingly smart. This Sport Roadster is mounted on a long Buick chassis with full 124 inch wheel base.

The most expensive leather is used in its upholstery. Nickel and bevel plate glass are liberally used to set off this combination to best advantage.

The big, wide seat accommodates three persons. The entire riding compartment, both floor and toe-boards, is covered with a soft carpet. The instrument board is covered with black embossed leather. This car is fully equipped with accessories and has speed and power beyond the average.

In all no pains have been spared to make this roadster fine. These and many other details unite in making this our masterpiece.

When better cars are built Buick will build them.
